

5. Searching Love

© Lyrics by John Fergusson Published May 30 1986

In twilight tones of light embraced
Love's searching eyes probe human ghost
Whispers laser etched, eternal tale
Telling of love beyond the veil
Of human flesh endowed with grace
Divine meets man now face to face
And in this state of frozen time
Eternity takes place in heavenly mime.
He then released His power
Loves glorious triumph hour
I saw the conquered bow and surrender to the grace

I do believe He meant to see
His love in man would be set free
Come wings of love and lift us up
Above earth's dark edge in heavenly light
Just as shafts of light burst and break the night
Dawn of the day shows us the way
And in this light amazing love
Man meets Divine now shining white
And in this state of glory share
Eternity's resplendent love
Man and God is love.
