

7. Love Will Always Be

© Published Dec 1986 John Fergusson

When there is nothing more to say
We need only be who we are
Until there's nothing more to be
But while we can be who we are
Let us enjoy all we are able
By giving to each other
The best each of us can be
Without the pressure to change the other
But just letting be
For love does not demand change
It allows change

Because love never fails
Love knows when to let go
When to hold on
Love always covers
Love never smothers
Love will always be
Nothing more to say
